THE FREIGHT RATES ON BLEEP.
CLAR OF CHICAGO PACKING FIRMS-SUG-GESTED RATES.
 CO., Aug. 20.—The heavy packing this city have prepared a circular, copies of have been sent to Commissioner Pink, to tive Committee of the east-bound pool and to representatives of the Eastern roads, upon controversy over the comparative rates on beef and live stock. The rates are now 60 per 100 pounds respectively. Commissioner Fink has shown a desire to increase the dressed beef to 77 cents, which would equalize the price on the basis of 40 cents for live weight. The price of dressed beef that runs 45 to 54 cents, properly equalized rate on dressed beef, statistics are offered in support of this view. The market is not in a position to accept Commissioner Fink's view. The market will be called before the Executive Committee of the board at its next session.

BONDS OF THE NEW-JERSEY CENTRAL.
Income bondholders of the Central Railroad of New-Jersey will meet this afternoon at the office of Alexander Smith & Co., No. 58 Wall-st., to vote on the proposed adjustment of their claims against the road.

Philadelphia and Reading Railroad was completed between the officers of the two companies, it was agreed that the bonds should be allowed interest for one and a half years from the date of the lease. At a subsequent meeting of the directors of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, it was agreed that the bonds should be allowed interest for one and a half years from the date of the lease. At a subsequent meeting of the directors of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, it was agreed that the bonds should be allowed interest for one and a half years from the date of the lease.

Instead of the five years' interest which they had, The Jersey Central Company, in view of season, abandoned all disputes in regard to the bonds. It was proposed at first to issue scrip in lieu of the agreed interest and to stamp the bonds with the terms of the compromise. This plan was abandoned and a new issue of bonds proposed. The bondholders agreed to a form for the new bond, in which they inserted a mortgage clause.

President Gowen, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, objected to this form and struck it from the bond. At the same time he offered to purchase of the issue from $2,640,000 to $3,000,000.
